A powerful voice for fathers and families of children with special needs

November 3, 2018 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM
Bellevue School District Wilburton Instructional Service Center , Bellevue, WA

2018 WA State Fathers Network Conference

It's Never Too Late to Advocate

Keynote – Glenna Gallo

As Assistant Superintendent for Special Education at the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, Glenna is the highest ranking public official in Washington addressing Special Education. She'll talk about the current state of special education; what's working well, what needs improvement and the changes she'd like to make. She'll also speak about opportunities for involvement/advocacy, especially for men and looks forward to your questions.

Who should attend?

Men who have a child with special health care needs in their life.

$25 Scholarships available

Fee increases to $50 in October
